Looking Ahead on the 60th Anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Wednesday, December 10, 7 p.m.
Peace & Justice Theatre

Join “Eleanor Roosevelt” on the occasion of the signing of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. A panel discussion featuring William Aceves, associate dean, California Western School of Law; Marjorie Cohn, professor, Thomas Jefferson School of Law; and Dustin Sharp, senior program officer, Joan B. Kroc Institute for Peace & Justice, will examine how far human rights have come since 1948 and what the future is for their fuller implementation globally.

UNIVERSAL DECLARATION
OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Co-sponsored by the Joan B. Kroc Institute for Peace & Justice at the University of San Diego's Joan B. Kroc School of Peace Studies, International Museum of Human Rights at San Diego, United Nations Association and Voices of Women.

Also joining the celebration: AAUW-SD's International Interests Committee, Amnesty International, California Western School of Law, Human Rights Watch, Joan B. Kroc School of Peace Studies, League of Women Voters' International Relations Committee, Survivors of Torture International, Thomas Jefferson School of Law, United Nations Association's Women's Equity Council, USD International Human Rights Law Society, San Diego World Affairs Council. Special thanks to Rosina Reynolds for bringing Eleanor Roosevelt to life and to Harle Montgomery for making it possible through her support.

A reception will follow the presentation.
