6:30 p.m. Dinner & Program

Athens Market Taverna

109 West "F" St
San Diego, CA 92101
(Just west of Horton Plaza)

Join the San Diego World Affairs Council on Tuesday, August 24th as we celebrate the Greek culture, Olympic style! As the 2004 Olympics gets into full swing, all eyes will be on Greece, the cradle of western civilization.

Come and experience the best Greek food in San Diego while listening to our guest for the evening, Minas Savvas, Ph.D., as he answers questions about the history of Greece, the Olympics, and how Greeks feel about the on-going conflict in the Middle East.

This Cultural Dinner will be at the award winning Athens Market Taverna in Downtown San Diego. Dinner will include a choice of either Kotopoulos, baked chicken seasoned with lemon, olive oil and oregano or, for our Vegetarians, Yemista, fresh vegetables stuffed with rice, soybean sauce and fresh herbs and seasonings. Be sure to RSVP early as space is limited!

Professor Savvas has been a professor of English & Comparative Literature at San Diego State University since 1968. He is a native of Athens, Greece, he has served in the U.S. Armed Forces and he has published widely on issues pertaining to Greek Literature and Culture. He has been the recipient of several awards, including the World Poetry Award, a National Endowment for the Humanities Grant and a grant from the Hellenic Ministry of Culture.
